

CAPASUS
Since 1977

Call for Abstract - Young Scholar Session 2015 CAPASUS Annual Conference

August 7 – 9, 2015
Sonesta Gwinnett Place Atlanta
Duluth, Georgia

Hosted by the Chinese-American Academic and Professional Association in Southeastern United States (CAPASUS)

Conference Theme:

Innovative Technologies and High-Quality Recreational Life

Deadline for Submitting an Abstract and Registration: April 30, 2015.

This young scholar session at the 2015 CAPASUS annual meeting provides a conference platform for the Taiwanese young scholars in the Southeastern U.S. to come together to (1) celebrate their research achievements, (2) network with other scholars, as well as to (3) connect with accomplished Taiwanese scholars and professionals living in the Southeastern U.S.

What is the format of the Submissions?

- Paper submissions require the following information:
- Name, Affiliation, and Title
- Paper Title & Abstract 250-300 words

What should you expect from this Conference?

- Present your research findings at a regional conference
- Network with Taiwanese scholars from universities in the Southeastern US
- Learn practical skills for academic and professional career

Who should attend this Conference?

Any undergraduate and graduate students, academic and/or professional scholars who are from Taiwan or Taiwanese-Americans are strongly encouraged to attend this significant event.

What is the format of the Conference?

Oral presentations in English (preferred). Topics of presentations include (but are not limited to) natural sciences and technology, arts and literature, social sciences (including law and economics), and health / medical science.

Scholarship available for selected presenters to cover partial conference expense.

For further questions, contact the Young Scholar Session Coordinators, Dr. Hsi-Ling Huang at hhuang@ggc.edu & Dr. Yi-Yin Lin at retaa1020@gmail.com, or Conference Chair at Dr. Chin-Tser Huang at huangct@gmail.com

New Session ~ “Path to Success” Panel Discussion: in order to help young scholars prepare for their future career in academia, there will be a panel discussion as a part of the Young Scholar Session. The panelists are experienced scholars, teaching faculty who would share their experiences as well as advice on various topics, such as preparing an outstanding curriculum vitae, preparing for job search and interviews, understanding academic hiring process, changing your immigration status, etc. Future topics may include pedagogical discussions on bridging cultural gaps and overcoming language barrier in the classroom, how to prepare for evaluation portfolio, promotion, and tenure review, advice on research and publications, immigration Q & A, etc. If you would like the panelists to give you feedback on your curriculum vitae, please bring a hard copy to the conference.

Please forward this information to your network! Thanks.